Website Terms of Use & Legal

Disclaimer

Last Updated: 02/19/2026

Welcome to the official website of the Fayette County Attorney's Office. Your access to and use of this website (fayettecountyattorney.com) is subject to the following terms and conditions. By accessing this site, you agree to these terms.

1. No Legal Advice Provided

The content and materials provided on this website are for informational purposes only. This information is general in nature and may not apply to your specific factual or legal circumstances. The information provided is not intended as a substitute for, and should not be relied upon as legal advice.

2. No Attorney-Client Relationship Created

Your use of this website, including sending an email or submitting a form, does not create an attorney-client relationship between you and the Fayette County Attorney's Office or any of its attorneys or staff.

An attorney-client relationship is not formed until our office has expressly agreed to represent you. Do not send any confidential, privileged, or sensitive information through this website or through any email address listed on this site unless you are an existing client and have been instructed to do so.

3. Accuracy of Information

We make reasonable efforts to provide accurate and up-to-date information. However, we do not warrant, guarantee, or make any representations regarding the accuracy, completeness, or timeliness of the information provided. The law changes rapidly, and this site may not reflect the most current legal developments. The Fayette County Attorney's Office assumes no liability or responsibility for any errors or omissions in the content of this site.

4. Kentucky Open Records Act

Please be aware that the Fayette County Attorney's Office is a public agency subject to the Kentucky Open Records Act (KRS 61.870 et seq.). Any information or communication you provide through this website, including emails, may be considered a public record and subject to public disclosure, unless a specific statutory exemption applies.

5. Third-Party Links

This website may contain links to third-party websites for your convenience. These links are not intended to be referrals or endorsements of the linked sites. The Fayette County Attorney's Office does not control and is not responsible for the content, accuracy, or policies of any third-party website. If you choose to access any third-party site linked from this website, you do so at your own risk.

6. Copyright Notice

All content on this website, including text, graphics, logos, images, and software, is the property of the Fayette County Attorney's Office or is used with permission, and is protected by United States and international copyright laws. You may print copies of the information for your own personal, non-commercial use, provided that all copies retain any original copyright notices. Any other distribution, modification, or re-use of the content on this site without the express written permission of the Fayette County Attorney's Office is strictly prohibited.

7. Limitation of Liability

Your use of this website is at your own risk. The Fayette County Attorney's Office, its officials, attorneys, employees, and agents shall not be liable for any direct, indirect, incidental, consequential, or punitive damages arising out of your access to, or use of, this website. No one shall be entitled to a claim for detrimental reliance on any information provided or expressed.

8. Prohibited Use of Official Communication Channels

The official email addresses and web forms provided on this site are for official government business only.

- Phishing: The solicitation of identifying information through deceptive electronic mail or web pages is a Class D felony under KRS 434.697.
- Unlawful Access: Any attempt to gain unauthorized access to our networks, data, or systems via fraudulent messages or social engineering is a criminal offense under KRS 434.845.
- Unsolicited Commercial Email (Spam): We do not consent to the receipt of unsolicited commercial email. This office reserves the right to seek civil penalties and injunctive relief under the Kentucky Consumer Protection Act (KRS 367.170) and the Federal CAN-SPAM Act (15 U.S.C. § 7701 et seq.) for messages containing false or misleading header information.

9. Changes to These Terms

The Fayette County Attorney's Office reserves the right to modify these Terms of Use at any time. We recommend that you review this page periodically for any changes. Your continued use of this site after any modification constitutes your agreement to the new terms.
