

The Kentucky County Attorney's Association (KCAA) selected their next Executive Board at their most recent meeting, held on August 20th, 2026, in conjunction with the annual Kentucky Prosecutors Conference. A slate of candidates was proposed by the Nominating Committee and current Board of Directors and then confirmed by a unanimous vote of the membership in attendance. The new KCAA Board will take office on October 1, 2026 to serve a two-year term ending September 2028. The new Board consists of:

President: Jennie Haymond, Madison County Attorney
Vice-President: Jason Darnall, Marshall County Attorney
Past-President: Joe Ross, Logan County Attorney
Treasurer: Jordan Turner, Boone County Attorney
Secretary: Joe White, Clay County Attorney
NDAA Representative: Martin Hatfield, Pulaski County Attorney

At Large Directors:

Cade Foster, McCracken County Attorney
Angela Evans, Fayette County Attorney
Berry Baxter, Oldham County Attorney
Keith Craycraft, Montgomery County Attorney
Corey Thomas, Spencer County Attorney

The KCAA also selected five of their members to serve on the Prosecutors Advisory Council, the administrative body that oversees the Unified Prosecutorial System. The Prosecutors Advisory Council is made up of the Attorney General, five County Attorneys, five Commonwealth Attorneys, and two citizen members. The KCAA selected the following members:

Jennie Haymond, Madison County Attorney – Population 75,000 and above
Jason Darnall, Marshall County Attorney – Population 25,000 -75,000
Jeff Traughber, Todd County Attorney – Population under 25,000
Stacy Tapke, Kenton County Attorney - At Large
Steve Gold, Henderson County Attorney – At Large